1) In notification dt 11-4-50 (please see the extract from the Mysore Gazette dt 20-4-50 placed in the file), Sri Kanakaraj was granted E.L. for 1 month from 1-4-50. As the control of the I.T. Dept was taken over by the centre from 1-4-50, the officer was asked to avail himself of the leave from that date ie 1-4-50. But he has continued in the office up to the F.N. of 13-4-50 and has been relieved of his office under the authority of G.O. no. H. 7551—S.T. 13-49-4 dt 25-3-50 and subsequently he has joined duty as Dy. Commr of Sales Tax in the A.N. of 5-6-50 under the authority of the notification no. 31752-CB-77-50-1 dt 18-5-50.

Before notifying the extension of leave to the officer as suggested by the Commr of S.T. — it is ascertained from the Audit officer that the officer has at his credit the leave recommended —, the Finance Dept may be requested to intimate if their order dt 25-3-50 mentioned at A above authorised the officer to continue in office as Dy. Commr of Income tax cum Sales Tax, Mysore District up to the F.N of 13-4-50

Sir,

Subject:- Extension of privilege leave to
Sri L.Kantharaj Urs.

Sri L.Kantharaj Urs was in charge of the office of the Deputy Commissioner of Sales Tax, Mysore Division till he was relieved by Janab M.Abdul Azeem, in the forenoon of 13-4-1950. From the date of his relief he utilised one month's privilege leave sanctioned in Government Notification No.562/C.B.32-50-1 dated 11th April 1950. Subsequently he was posted as Deputy Commissioner of Sales Tax, Bangalore Division in Government Notification No.3175/C.B. 77-501 dated 18th May 1950 and he joined duty here in the afternoon of 5th June 1950 after utilising joining and preparation time to which he was entitled. The intervening period of 16 days from 13-5-1950 to 28-5-1950, both days inclusive, is now to be treated as an extension of privilege leave and I request that this may kindly be sanctioned.

Yours faithfully,

K. Subba Rao

Sir,

Subject:- Extension of leave to
Sri L.Kantharaj Urs.

With reference to your letter No. 5248/C.B. dated 7th July 1950 I have the honour to state that Sri L.Kantharaj Urs had no instructions from Government to hand over charge at Mysore on the 1st April 1950 to the Sales Tax Officer, Mysore or to any other subordinate officer of the Department. He had necessarily to await the arrival of Janab M.Abdul Azeem, who reported himself for duty at Mysore only in the forenoon of 13th April.

The post of Deputy Commissioner of Income Tax Cum Sales Tax, Shimoga Division was abolished from 1-4-1950 and Janab Abdul Azeem who held that post ought to have joined his new post at Mysore on or before the joining and preparation time admissible to him expired. 2nd and 9th April are Sundays, ~~and 7th was a General holiday (Good Friday)~~. I think that under Article 102 Mysore Service Regulation he should have joined duty at Mysore at least on the ~~10~~ 10th forenoon. Instead of proceeding straight to Mysore he wanted to come to Bangalore to seek instructions in connection with the disbandenment of the establishment at Shimoga. This was wholly unnecessary as this office was dealing with that question. I am therefore of opinion that the three days from the 10th to 12th inclusive by which Janab Azeem exceeded the joining and preparation time may be treated as privilege leave.

Yours faithfully,

COMMISSIONER OF SALES TAX.
